PROJECT NO. 149 ~~MISSOURI~~

"Rock House"
336 Main Street,
St. Charles, Missouri.

This row of rock houses was built in 1835 by unknown settlers in St. Charles. The property is now owned by George Wallenbrock.

This is an interesting example of old row house construction, with walls of stone. Two story and attic with gable roofs and dormers. It is assumed that balconies at one time adorned the front at the second story level in a manner typical of that period.
